The home looked lovely in its decorations of pink rose buds, and five tables of players enjoyed the game of tuction, being appointed to their places by score cards in dainty pink design. At each place stood a tiny kewpie wearing a large pink hat and carrying a bouquet of for-get-me-nots. The place of honor guest was designated by a large kewpie, appropriately gowned in bridal costume. Individual sweet pea cups held mints, which the guests enjoyed during the game.

Those awarded with kewpie powder boxes for receiving high score were, Mrs. C. E. Anderson, Mrs. F. D. Wattles, Mrs. Nell Varnes, Mrs. H. M. Fearnside and Mrs. Willie Metcalf. uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Crom-The honoree was presented with a handsome hhand embroidered piece of

BASKET BALL PRACTICE.

Some of Crack Teams of State.

Last night at the Club House the Palatka Basket Ball Club was organized. A large number of enthusiastic members were present, and the most promising season in the history of the ity is predicted.

Charlie Anderson was unanimously elected manager; Louis Jarman, treasuver, and MacDonald, coach. The first practice will be held Thursday night at 7:30 and all interested are asked to report to Mr. MacDonald at that time at the club house.

An excellent schedule is being prepared by Manager Anderson and the basket ball enthusiasts of the city can rest assured that some excitinng contests will be staked on the home court as well as in the nearby towns in the coming season.
